

Key Rates Go Up Three Cents

City Council Argues Local Telephone Hike

Under Impression It Would Be State Wide

The Hondo City Council lashed Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Thursday night in an effort to reduce local telephone calls from 10 cents to five cents.

Council members told C. C. Bradshaw, district manager of Southwestern Bell, that they were under the impression telephone calls would not go to ten cents before it was in effect all over the state.

They said Bradshaw told them, or it was their impression, that nearly all of his (Bradshaw) district was ready to go to ten cents at the time he appeared before the City Council asking for the pay hike Dec. 8, 1955. The ten cents local telephone fee went into effect in Hondo last summer.

Bradshaw said he certainly wouldn't have told the Council anything that wasn't true and said he did not remember telling them he had all of his district ready to go. He also said he "thought San Antonio would have gone to ten cents by now — I didn't know it would take them so long."

Mayor T. B. Knopp read minutes from the Dec. 8th meeting, which went against the Council. Minutes read that the telephone company would keep the identical rates on telephone bills, but would hike their pay phones to ten cents. The telephone hike "will go into effect when the telephone company sees feasible."

Although the minutes were against the Council, all city fathers agreed that Bradshaw had told them it would go into effect when it was state-wide.

"Why should Hondo be penalized a year or so on this thing?" Mayor Knopp asked.

Another Councilman told Bradshaw to get the other "32 towns in your district signed up and then come back to Hondo for our approval." There are 33 towns in Bradshaw's district.

The ten cents local telephone hike is now in effect in Luling, Seguin, Uvalde, Hondo and Brackettville, and will go into effect in Pearsall, Cotulla, Pleasanton and Poteet soon, Bradshaw told the Council.

There are two types of public telephone booths — semi-public and public telephones. A semi-public telephone is where the place does not have a business telephone.

At the same time, Bradshaw presented the city a check for $1,338.93 to pay for use of supervision. The figure represents two per cent on local billing within the city limits for one year.

The Council granted Bradshaw two weeks, and he will return to discuss the telephone hike at the next regular meeting of the Council April 25.

D'Hanis FFA Juging Team Takes First

The D'Hanis FFA land judging team took first place at the area VII land judging contest held at San Marcos, April 13. The San Saba team took second place, losing only by seven points.

Team members from D'Hanis were Roman Garcia, Tommy Fillingim, John Rodriguez and Gilbert Gallegos. Garcia was tied for high point man of the contest with 183 out of a possible 240 points. Fillingim tied for second with 176 and Rodriguez was third with 174 points.

D'Hanis will represent area VII at the state contest set for Stephenville April 27. The top five teams from the ten areas in Texas will go to the National land judging contest held in Oklahoma after that.

Over Electrical Dispute

Words Fly At Meet

Al Schiffers, Hondo City Councilman, unleashed a verbal attack on Bill Gaudian and the Hondo Electric System during the Council's regular meeting last Thursday night.

Amid much discussion, the Council finally adopted a motion and ended the dispute, which started when Gaudian refused to connect a Hondo residence, Dr. E. B. Vincent, to the Electrical System because of clearance of lines coming into a recently remodeled apartment.

Gaudian said connection to the house must be ten feet six inches from the ground before he would connect, allowing a 10 foot clearance at the lowest point of the line.

Schiffers said the man told him there were many homes in Hondo where the clearance was less than 10 feet. Gaudian denied this.

"Why let one person have a connection less than 10 feet and deny the same connection to another person," Schiffers said. "It just doesn't make common sense to me."

"Let's not quibble — hook the thing up or don't hook it up."

Car Insurance To Climb May 1

You're going to start paying more for motor car insurance beginning May 1, according to insurance agents here.

Collision insurance rates will go up 5.3 per cent on May 1. Comprehensive rates will climb 11.7 per cent. Comprehensive coverage may be written on a $25 deductible basis at a reduction of 25 per cent on the rates. This coverage (the deductible) is optional with the policy holder.

Bodily injury insurance rates will be up 12.2 per cent. Property damage rates will climb 15.6 per cent. There will be no change in the rates on medical payments.

Another change: female operators under 25 years is eliminated as a rating element.

The group voted to hold one regular meeting each year — the first Saturday in October — with any called or special meetings left to the discretion of club officials. Officers are: J. Floyd Slater, president; J. B. Hurt, treasurer; and Ed Ney, secretary.

Dr. O. B. Taylor was named chairman of local members. A turkey luncheon was served at 5:30 p.m. in the Methodist Church recreational hall.

One-half of those present for the meeting were from San Antonio and the rest from various sections of the state.

City Council Okays Water Main Project

Fire insurance key rates for Hondo jumped another three cents for the quarter ending March 31, local insurance agents have announced, making Hondo's new key rate 67 cents. The old rate was 64 cents.

In an effort to stop the continually rising key rates, the Hondo City Council has given the go-ahead to Homer Wilson to

Two Wrecks Investigated Last Week

Medina County law enforcement officers investigated two accidents over the weekend.

The first, a two-car collision, resulted in an estimated $120 damage to the two vehicles, when a 1951 Ford driven by 16 year old Patrick Floyd Mechler of Rt. 9, San Antonio, rammed the right rear fender of a 1957 Chevrolet driven by Emil Edward Zinsmeyer, 17, LaCoste.

The Mechler car collided with the rear of the Zinsmeyer car as Zinsmeyer attempted a right turn from the Biry Road to Farm Road 471, 5.8 miles south of Castroville last Saturday about 10:30 p.m.

The Chevrolet, owned by William Martin Zinsmeyer, received about $50 damage and the other car received an estimated $70 damage in the collision.

A one car accident on a curve on the lower LaCoste-Castroville Road late Sunday evening caused an estimated $300 damage to a 1947 Ford pickup driven by Fabian Martinez, 37 year old Castroville resident. The accident was one mile south of Castroville about 5 p.m. Sunday afternoon.

New Name Needed For Hospital

Anybody know a good name for a hospital?

For want of a better name we have been using Medina County Hospital for the institution which someday will serve the county, but when one is called a "County" hospital, it implies that it might be a charity run affair. This is not the case, as the new facilities would be expected to be self-supporting and only do a minimum amount of charity work as practically all hospitals do.

Another reason for thinking up a name is that the privately owned one in Hondo is called Medina Hospital, and a new one should have its own designation.

So if you think up a likely name, mention it to one of the hospital committeemen from your area, or send it to the Hondo Chamber of Commerce.

Study Uvalde Plant
The County Judge and members of the commissioners' court of Medina County were among those making a tour of facilities in Uvalde this week. They also talked over the matter with the Uvalde County Judge in an effort to find out more about Uvalde Memorial Hospital, which is a county hospital.

lay 2,600 feet of eight-inch water mains in the mercantile area and 5,000 feet of six-inch mains in residential areas.

Wilson and O. L. Moss, city secretary, made a trip to Austin to discuss the matter with the state insurance department last week. They were told if reports were filed on time for the next four to six months, Hondo key rates would gradually begin to fall. The city and the Fire Department have to file reports each month.

Hondo is now on "probation" with the state department, and will be watched closely for the next six months to see if they really want their rates lowered. A ten-cents deduction will be realized as soon as the city adopts a Building Code. Work is now underway on the new code.

Fire Plugs Needed

More fire plugs are also needed in Hondo, and will be placed in position along with the new pipe lines. Mayor T. B. Knopp said the state department had no knowledge of what the city had done since 1952. Fire engineers in Austin have designated the mercantile area in Hondo and said that is where eight-inch mains should be placed. Five fire plugs are needed in the mercantile area.

The Council heard a letter from an insurance company, stating that one of their representatives would come to Hondo to help find out what is wrong before insurance commission engineers make an inspection of the town. They will place red tags on fire hazards and meet with the City Council to discuss what the city needs before fire insurance key rates can be reduced.

The State Department also said the fire department needed a course of instruction, presented in Hondo, by Texas A&M College. Delayed reports were blamed for the three-cents increase in key rates during the first quarter of 1957. Devine kept the same rating of 42 cents.

Rate, Actual Loss

Included in the insurance commission report to Moss and Wilson was the fact that plumbing, gas and electricity must be inspected before any of the utilities are turned on for use. The city has an inspection law, along with a building permit requirement, but the inspector said the ordinance was too hard to understand and left many points undetermined.

The actual rate for Hondo is 72 cents but credits total five cents, making the rate 67 cents. Credit is given for methods of fire prevention and principles of fire insurance being taught in public schools and for maintaining an arson reward. Devine's credits total six cents.

As an example, fire insurance policies have been prepared on a $10,000 frame residence in Hondo and a $10,000 frame residence in Devine. Actual cost in Hondo for the policy would be $24 per year while insurance on the same house in Devine would cost $19.50, a saving of $4.50 per $10,000 frame residence.

For every $1,000,000 insurance valuation on frame residences in Hondo, loss from high key rates would be $450 per year, if the key rate stayed at 67 cents.

County Area Looks Better After Rain

Prospects look better in Medina Valley Soil Conservation District for 1957 than they did in several years. The county, and there is sufficient moisture on most farms to grow summer crops. If conditions continue, Medina County will be like the rest of the state. People knew several years ago that the valley was looking better, but will need some help to get back in good condition. The county and its people are excited, now that they are green on the range and rush to the sales and additional cattle. All native range on the range are in a condition at present. It is a hard fight for them to make a comeback after all dry years. Therefore, they will be given a chance to make a much needed seed crop. A lot of the seed coming up now has been lying on the range for several years. If you jump in and graze them to death, you are going to be in a much worse condition than you were during the drought years. Rangeland Conservation Planning is on the boom in the District at present. A sound conservation plan, when carried to completion, can be a great help in preventing drought losses in future years. It is true that it takes water, and plenty of it, to produce a good crop of grass. However, many of us are not doing much about trying to hold the water that does fall. A look at the ditches and creeks over the District during a rain will show us that three-fourths of the rain that falls runs off to the Gulf of Mexico. Your Soil Conservation Service technicians are ready to help you put a stop to this great loss of water. How about giving us a call? Remember, our services are free to the farmers and ranchers of the District.

Don Gets Mousetrapped By Interested Reader

It's an interesting experience working in a business where a complaint is often a form of compliment.
One day recently, down on 19th street, I had just tossed my advertising clipboard in the car, and was getting in myself when an Anvil Herald reader came by.
"Hey, Don", he said, "Do you take news stories?"
"Why sure," I said, tossing my wheelchair in the back seat of the car.

While he started talking anxiously about his new granddaughter, I took notes on my clipboard sheet. He also had a note about his wife's father in a nearby town.
"You're sure, that'll be in 'Here In Hondo', this week", he pressed. "It's already a week late, 'cause I forgot to come down last week."

I allowed as how it would in all likelihood be in Here In Hondo and headed back toward the office, where I wrote it up and dropped it in the basket.

When he received his paper, our reader took it home with him to read it carefully, so he could read about himself.

He sat in his favorite easy chair, flicked on his reading lamp, put on his glasses, and following his agreeable habit started his careful reading of the Anvil Herald word for word, from front to back. This week it would be even more interesting, because HIS name would be in it.

Well, somehow his news item was left out, and he nailed me on the street the next day.

"Hey, Don" he challenged, "Why wasn't my news in the paper? It'll be too old now."

"Are you sure it wasn't in" I asked.

"Doggone sure," he snapped. "I read my Anvil Herald word for word, cover to cover, twice. And the longer I read, the madder I got."

Well, we chatted a bit and I explained how those things sometimes get left out, and assured him it would definitely appear next week. (Ed. Note: It did).

He's seen me a couple of times since then, and still has his fun giving me a rough time about it... for fun.
And I enjoy it too... because remarks like this reader's bring a warm glow of satisfaction from knowing that he and lots of other folks in Hondo and Medina county read their Anvil Herald in the same way. It's a mighty good feeling, and one of the rewards of newspapering.

Mrs. Fred Allen Jr., Martha Nell and Doyle of Campbellton, were guests of her parents, M&M E. T. Wiemers and Gene several days last week.

A large crowd attended the FFA barbecue and movie Saturday night at the Yancey School. We are always happy to have our friends from other places attend. We noticed there were guests from Hondo, Devine and San Antonio and perhaps others we did not see.

M&M Richard Faseler and Jimmie of Pearsall, spent Sunday with his parents, M&M Ed Faseler. We are happy to report that little Jimmie is much better from a very serious kidney infection. He is not well by any means yet, but any slight improvement in his condition gives us all a lift.

M&M Sam Darby of San Antonio, spent Sunday with M&M S. P. Childress and in the afternoon, they visited M&M W. B. Melton. Other guests of the Meltons were M&M Norman Gray of Cotulla.

M&M W. B. Melton attended Palm Sunday Services at the Post Chapel in Hondo Sunday. Their daughter, Mrs. Robert Ward and granddaughters, Mary Lou and Sue Nell Ward, and Kathy Hartman sang with the choir.

Mrs. Stevens of Houston, has returned to her home after a visit with the W. B. Meltons.

M&M John McAnelly and family and M&M Dick McAnelly and family of Hondo, were Sunday guests of the G. C. McAnellys.

Mrs. W. S. Garnett and Mrs. Vernon Hicks and Debby and Dorothy are spending several days in Austin this week.

Guests of M&M W. S. Garnett Sr., over the weekend were M&M W. S. Garnett Jr., Nancey, Kathy and Gary of Victoria, M&M Bryan Frost, Susan and Karen, M&M Martin Holter, Jan, Scott and Kris of Austin and M&M Vernon Hicks, Debby and Dorothy of Raymondville.

Neighbor: Man-oh-man, where'd all that power come from? I've never felt anything like that before!

Olds Owner: That's Oldsmobile's new J-2 Rocket Engine!

Neighbor: What's that? Tell me how it works.

Olds Owner: When you're driving under ordinary conditions, it uses only one carburetor. That means economy with a capital E. But when you need a sudden burst of power, for safety's sake, you just press the accelerator three-quarters of the way down—and two additional carburetors cut in!

An Open Letter To Mr. Eisenhower

By Jerry June Berger

Hold on there, Mr. President. That's OUR money you are spending.

Monday was the deadline for getting in our income tax payments and we'd like you to know that we worked hard for that money. We don't want you just throwing it down rat holes either.

Just a few weeks ago you let King Saud come over here and take home $200,000,000 of our American money. Then what did he do, this king who has dozens of wives and dozens of Cadillac cars? Why he turned right around and let Nasser, the Egyptian dictator, have $30,000,000. It was bad enough your letting Saud have that "loan," but for him to then give part of it to a potential enemy of this country, we find intolerable. Frankly, Mr. President, we taxpayers consider that a slap in the face.

Maybe you don't feel like we do down here in Medina County, Texas, U.S.A. After all, you and others have been on the public payrolls almost all of your adult lives. We don't mind contributing to your salary, but we certainly do begrudge giving to many forms of your "foreign aid."

Take this British business for instance. They have REDUCED taxes to their people for a second time while your administration has loaned them more millions on top of the billions they already owed us — and then gives them a rest period of several years on the interest. Oh that the businessmen and farmers of Medina County could make such deal!

Somebody back in the Franklin D. Roosevelt administration said, "Tax and spend, tax and spend." We are no admirer of many phases of that administration, but frankly we feel that you, President Eisenhower, and your crowd, are making F. D. R. look like a skink.

Seventeen years ago we could buy an auto — brand new, deluxe eight and with all accessories — for $850. Today we would have to pay about three times that amount for a stripped down job in a six.

Also in 1940 we could buy a loaf of bread for 7 cents.

Understand, we don't have a gripe with the car dealers or the bread salesmen, but all this — foreign aid and inflation — are really frustrating to us poor boob taxpayers who have to pay the bills.

So come on off that high-minded figure you've set for your budget, Mr. Eisenhower. Cut down on some of that rat hole foreign aid and those superfluous helicopters.

Hold on there, Mr. President. That's OUR money you are spending.

Zoning Has A Place In The Community

The Hondo City Council has named five men to the newly formed zoning committee, with Hugh Meyer as chairman.

Zoning is a feared word to some while to others it is merely a formality and to still others, it is one of the best steps a city can ever take.

Zoning has a purpose. One of its main purposes is to keep residential areas residential — in other words, keep the cook stove in the kitchen.

Hondo is growing and will probably continue to grow — estimated population of Hondo by 1960 is 10,000. The City Council has looked ahead with enough vigilance to know Hondo needs some kind of zoning laws.

Zoning consists of about one-third law and two-thirds human relations, mixed in with trust between towns people and the committee.

The Council has not decided how to zone the town, and that will be one of the main tasks facing the zoning commission. But, the Council has found a definite need for zoning.

The planning and zoning committee has the power to employ such qualified persons as may be necessary for the proper conduct and undertakings of the commission and to pay for their services and such other necessary expenses provided that the cost of such services and expense shall not exceed the amount appropriated by the governing body for the use of the commission.

The main part of an ordinance creating a planning and zoning committee states that the commission shall have the power and it shall be its duty to make and recommend for adoption a master plan for the future development of the municipality and its environs and will prepare a comprehensive plan and ordinance for zoning the city.

Zoning keeps industry in industrial areas — areas that are zoned for industry. It will be each Hondo citizen's job to see that zoning is handled right in Hondo. Support the zoning commission and you will find present and future needs taken care of in an acceptable manner.

ASKS A POINTED QUESTION

When Will We Call A Halt?

Some thoughtful person, now unfortunately lost to fame, once gave voice to the oft repeated expression:

"That people is best governed that is least governed."

Which expression is but a succinct way of saying that the best government is that government that is properly administered at the least possible cost to the governed.

A properly administered government is carried on at the minimum cost to the citizens consistent with all essential functions economically performed — that and nothing more!

The less conscious the average citizen is of the cost of his government, the better the administration of that government.

The moment he becomes conscious of a burden, it is time for him to make inquiry as to the reason why.

And having found the reason, it is the rightful duty of a self-governing people to see that the decaying body, multiplies one after another until the fungus destroys itself by consuming the substance upon which it fed.

FD

The struggle to find new sources from which tax money may be squeezed and the fineness of the tentacles with which tax money is being reached for is enough to cause alarm, lest we be reaching the danger point; the finer the tentacles the further they reach, the deeper they penetrate and the more people are made to feel the burden of government.

Take this case in point. With the Columnist's current telephone bill is a order from which we take these significant paragraphs:

"No doubt you notice every month that the Federal excise tax increases your local and Long Distance telephone bill by 10 per cent. Excise taxes on telephone service started back in 1914 as an emergency measure, and have been used from time to time since then for the same purpose. When passed, these tax laws were not intended to carry over when there was no emergency.

"The 10 per cent excise tax is imposed on the telephone user — not the telephone company. The company acts only as collection agent for the government."

Note some of the significant features of this scheme for securing money for government use.

Talk 10 cents worth and your great government demands that you — the buyer, not the seller of the service — pay it 1 cent for the privilege of talking.

Worse still, it compels the seller to collect the penny and turn it over to the government for no other compensation than the privilege of selling its service to you.

For "penny-pinching" we commend this as the limit!

And think of our great country resorting to such extremes to squeeze money from its citizens!

—FD—

And "to add insult to injury", the extremes to which our government is going to squeeze tax money from the people is not because of the need of our own country for the money to carry on its own legitimate governmental functions.

Under the pretentious claim of "Foreign Aid", our government is giving away tax money, thus wrong from its own people, with such a prodigious hand that even the beneficiaries among the foreigners are becoming disgusted.

Congressman George Meader of Michigan, in a signed article in Reader's Digest is quoted:

"We have forced projects upon countries not ready for them with the result that we build up, not friendship, but ill will and

TIME TO CALL A HALT!

THE BITE'S ON YOU!

Many people are not much concerned over big federal spending for civilian programs — because of a mistaken belief that citizens in the higher income brackets are paying the freight.

Actually, the higher incomes provide only a small fraction of income tax revenues — even though the rates, up to 91 per cent — come close to confiscation in the top brackets. The extreme rates make average taxpayers feel they are "getting off easy" — by contrast.

About 75 cents out of every federal income tax dollar is paid by people with taxable income of $6,000 or less. And 81 cents of every income tax dollar comes from those whose taxable income is less than $10,000.

High-bracket taxpayers have had it; they can't be squeezed much more. Corporate taxes must, in the end, be paid by consumers. So when federal spending goes up, make no mistake about it — the tax bite is on YOU!

SPARKS FOR MINDS

ALMOST five centuries ago, Gutenberg's invention of movable type started a revolution. It has been going on ever since.

For five times five centuries — and counts before — a few men were the privileged rulers — by accident of birth or of circumstance. The people were subjects, supporting those thus kept in authority.

However, movable type, by cutting the cost of printing, began the process of making knowledge more widely available. People's understanding then grew. Sparks of hope were awakened in the minds of men. When it became apparent to entrenched authority that permitting wide dissemination of information and ideas might in time destroy their sinecures, censorship was exercised.

In a search for greater freedom, men of many racess and creeds crossed the ocean to establish homes on this continent. They and their children founded here a nation dedicated to a new principle: government by the people, and for the people. And knowing that liberty could be overthrown only by subduing freedom of speech and the press, they provided further that this basic freedom should never be abridged.

That system of government created an opportunity for all men to advance, limited only by their efforts. In but a few generations it won for this people a higher standard of living and of human welfare than had ever before been dreamed possible.

America's freedom of the press has proved to the world that the patriotic instinct of an informed plain people can be relied on to govern wisely and well.

KILGORE'S CAPITOL COMMENT

By Joe Kilgore

THE ECONOMY DRIVE got in high gear this week when the House cut the President's budget request for the Commerce Department by over 25 per cent. I supported these cuts, just as I did on the earlier appropriations bills. This puts us well over the $1 billion mark in savings with lots of room left. We still haven't considered the Foreign Aid or the Military spending bills.

IN ANY KIND OF POLITICAL FIGHT it is hard to get behind the claims and counter claims and find the real facts. I want to try to do just that in the fight between the Postmaster General and the Appropriations Committee. Last year the Postmaster General asked the Congress for about $3 billion to run the Post Office Department for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1956 and ending June 30, 1957. The Congress reduced that request by only a little over $15 million, or a little less than one half of one per cent, and appropriated the money to run the Department for the year.

SOME YEARS AGO Congress passed what is called the anti-deficiency law. This law prohibits a department from spending more than one fourth of its annual appropriation in each quarter of the fiscal year. The law also requires that the Bureau of the Budget apportion the funds of each department on a quarterly basis.

The obvious purpose of this law is to require proper budget management and planning so that the funds will last for the year as intended. In the case of the Post Office Department this year, the Bureau of the Budget, at the request of the Postmaster General, allowed the Post Office Department to take about $50 million out of the fourth quarter (April, May and June) funds and spend it in the second and third quarters of the fiscal year. The rest is obvious. The Postmaster General then came to the Appropriations Committee and asked to be given an extra $47 million to finish out the year. The committee asked him what happened to the money he had already been given. He said he had spent it.

THE COMMITTEE said that he couldn't have spent it without violating the anti-deficiency law. The Postmaster General said he had to spend it to run the postal service because costs had increased and if he didn't get the money he would have to reduce services for the rest of the fiscal year. The committee said that the only increased costs it would recognize amounted to about $17 million which they would approve and for the Postmaster General to take that and go on and run the Post Office for the rest of the year on the money he asked for the year and which he had been given. With this money the Department would have a little more than was originally requested for the entire fiscal year.

THE REST is widely known. The Postmaster General announced that because Congress wouldn't give him the $47 million to run the Department, he was having to reduce services. After more deliberation the House Appropriations Committee voted to give the Department $41 million more to finish the year. The questions that are hard to answer are these:

Was it necessary for the extra money to be spent earlier in the year? Was it spent in open violation of the law? Since it has been spent, should the extra money be made available anyway to maintain services? If the extra money is made available, what effect will it have on efforts to require sound budget policies? These will remain the fundamental issues, no matter what action is finally taken by Congress.

THE SENATE this week passed H. R. 2367, with amendments, which would allow ranchers and stockmen to defer grazing on pasture lands in drought areas for a period of one to three years and provides that the ranchers will be paid at the rate of the fair rental value the land has at times of adequate rainfall. There is an individual limitation of a maximum payment of $1,000. The bill is intended to help restore range land by relieving the pressure to put cattle back on the range before the land has recovered from the drought. The House passed the bill some two months ago and it is now before the President.

PERSONAL APPEARANCE

By Jerry June Berger

Anybody interested in elephant steaks, or maybe a rhino T-bone? Now is the time to place your order as RAY JENNINGS is deep in the middle of plans to go on an African Safari the early part of August.

His actual destination is Nairobi, Kenya, British East Africa and he is sending one gun of his own over there just in case the lighter game gets tough with a Texan. The cost of shipping the gun is just a little more than the cost of renting one after he gets there.

On his 30-day hunt, RAY will get a chance at the big five (elephant, water buffalo, rhinoceros, lion and leopard).

He is currently brushing up on his African words which were sent him on a long list of essentials. But a postscript on the sheet says, "If you can't remember these words, try English." What we're wondering, though, is do they also understand Texan?

While waiting for her sister to get beautified in a San Antonio beauty parlor last weekend, SALLY BRUCKS came face to face with a former Medina County Home Demonstration Agent, VELMA HAMBLETON. Now MRS. CHARLES B. POTTER, she is teaching a fifth grade class in one school while her husband is principal of the same school in which THE LMA BRIDGES is teaching.

SALLY reports that she is vivacious as ever and sends greetings to her Hondo friends.

Out at the Hondo Garden Club meeting Friday, April 5, the guest arranger designed a large church arrangement as her finale. Composed of all white flowers in a white urn, the arrangement was truly a beautiful sight to see. What's more, the speaker offered to allow some of the Hondo church to use it in the following Sunday provided they would see to the return of the urn to San Antonio. So MRS. RIGGS SHEPPERD volunteered to take it for the Methodist Church. But on investigating after the meeting, she found that flowers as a memorial had been ordered for the altar for that Sunday.

MRS. SHEPPERD then phoned MRS. FABIAN GARRISON and offered them to the Baptist Church, but the Rainbow Girls were decorating their sanctuary and they couldn't use them.

Next call was to the Church of Christ and they were delighted to get them. They would have been a lovely addition to any church for Easter Sunday.

PA

ELIZABETH HEDGE, soon to be six years old, came home from San Antonio Tuesday following a nine-day stay in a hospital there. She has made a remarkable recovery from the serious injuries she suffered when she was hit by a car in front of her house, and her mother, MRS. W. B. HEDGE, says she has been walking since Thursday.

Doctors have warned them that her activities must be closely restricted for at least a month and MRS. HEDGE has decided it will simplify matters if she makes a no-company rule for ten days.

Parents whose youngsters have even had measles will sympathize with her on this score as it is hard enough to even keep them inactive with a childhood disease.

Little MICHAEL HEDGE has been down in Crystal City visiting his grandmother and aunt, but was due home about Wednesday.

PA

JOSEPH FREDERICH TEAGUE JR., 4 lbs. 15 ozs., arrived in a San Antonio hospital at 6:57 p.m., just four minutes before his twin sister, CATHERINE MARIE TEAGUE, 4 lbs. 12 ozs., on Thursday, April 11. MR. and MRS. J. F. TEAGUE are parents and their home is in the village at Hondo Air Base. He is a civilian instructor pilot at the base.

This is the first set of twins in either of the parents families.

Seco Sees Possibilities In Postmaster General's Recent Post Office Ideas

Dear editor:

I have always figured that two of the fundamental rights of every American was to occasionally get mad at the post office and the home town newspaper, and what brings this to mind is not anything that The Anvil Herald or Postmaster Harry Fillman have done lately, but the controversy brought on by Postmaster General Summerfield over the need for more money to keep the post office department functioning up to standard.

As I understand it, the Postmaster General threatened to close all the post offices on Saturdays, including rural free delivery, and to cut out some other post office functions if Congress didn't give the department 47 million dollars more money.

Mr. Summerfield said the post office was going in the red and the only choice was to get more money from Congress or curtail some of its services.

Now this is a new idea in government, and while I would hate to see the mail carrier fail to show up at my neighbor's mailbox on Saturdays, I'd like to say it has great possibilities. For example, take foreign aid. Everybody knows it's costing us tax payers a lot of money to keep the rest of the world happy, and if Sec. Dulles could come over to Postmaster General Summerfield's way of thinking, he could threaten to cut down on this aid unless Congress gave him more money. This might not make the rest of the world happy, but think what it would do to you and me.

Or take any other department of the government. Any time it got in the red, all it'd have to do is cut down on some of its operations, even to the point of letting some men off. I'll admit this is contrary to our way of life, that any time a country or a family is living beyond its income the thing to do isn't to cut down on spending but to borrow more and drag out the time payments longer, but it's something to toy with.

However, it could be carried too far. Take farming. It wouldn't work there. When a farmer finds he isn't making enough, he doesn't cut down on his services. He plows longer and tries to multiply 'em.

Maybe the post office department can cut down on its services when it's going in the hole, but you apply that to a farmer and the grocery shelves in town would soon be bare.

Yours faithfully,

J. A.

UN Votes Money To Fight Narcotics

For the first time in the history of the United Nations, an allocation of $86,500 was voted during February (1957) by the Technical Assistance Board, to help a government combat the problem of narcotics addiction. Iran asked for such aid last fall, in the wake of a decision to ban the growing of opium poppies throughout its territory.

Figures submitted in connection with the application to the Expanded Program of Technical Assistance indicate the scope of the difficulties confronting the officials at Teheran. The Ministry of Health reported 1,500,000 opium addicts in the country, with some 100,000 premature deaths, 50,000 abandoned children and 5,000 suicides a year as a result.

The Persian habit of opium smoking is at least 600 years old. Over the centuries the cumulative effects of use of the drug must have been appalling, but the absence of statistics until recently make them almost impossible to estimate.

In the 18-month campaign against opium addiction that was climaxed by the enactment of legislation outlawing the growing of opium poppies, the activities of one individual were pivotal. He is Dr. Jahanshah Selah, America-trained Minister of Health. Dr. Selah spent fourteen years in the United States, ab-treatment or addicts, before assuming his present post. His introduction into Iran of the routines he learned have brought about the presumptive cure of more than 4,000 addicts in the capital alone, he said in an interview a few months ago. The fact that those who have been helped are now helping in the treatment of others, Dr. Selah said, leads him to believe that his Ministry may have "broken the back" of this age-old evil.

His realistic attitude toward the course that must be followed to wipe it out permanently and effectively, however, led to the appeal to the United Nations or aid especially from the Food and Agriculture Organization. If the opium vice is to be eliminated, he pointed out, the peasants who have for so long cultivated the sinister poppy crops must be provided with substitute harvests that will insure them at least a comparable income.

After receipt of the request from Iran, the FAO dispatched a team of two experts to that country to explore ways and means of meeting this challenge. They visited the former poppy-growing areas, and were encouraged to find among the peasants a sincere desire to enforce the prohibition against such production. Simultaneously, they discovered that the effects of the ban were already making themselves keenly evident, in a drastic reduction of the average family income.

In one region they found that the income per hectare (2 1/2 acres) of poppy planted had been approximately $370, while a wheat crop returned only 115 (U.S.).

Moreover, the mission was informed, the opium was immediately salable at a fixed price, whereas the prices of other commodities fluctuated markedly. To balance this situation, the FAO men recommended long-term improvements in the agricultural standards of Iran.

The technical assistance to be given will include introduction of modern farming methods, better quality seeds, finer breeds of cattle and better marketing techniques.

Johnson's Bill Gets To Senate

WASHINGTON, (Spl) — Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson's deferred grazing bill, a major drought relief proposal aimed at preventing excessive grazing of drought damaged pastures, passed the Senate this week. A similar bill in the House of Representatives was modified to conform with the Senate's version and sent to the White House for Presidential approval.

"This is very basic to drought relief," the Senate Majority Leader said, "and absolutely essential for an effective program. It not only directly benefits the farmers and ranchers in the drought sections, but also provides much-needed safeguards for our precious soil assets."

Sen. Johnson pointed out that if stock were permitted to graze the land — much of it already ground and trampled into a fine powder — permanent pasture damage could result. "Soon the land would become barren and sterile, fit for nothing except melancholy lectures on how we lacked wisdom," he said.

The bill provides payments for deferred grazing at rates equal to the fair rental value of the land. The payments would apply only to non-federally owned land and to native rangeland, and the amount of payment would be limited to $5,000 for any individual for any year. "Fair rental value" would be determined on the basis of normal grazing capacity of the land during periods of adequate precipitation.

"We were faced," Sen. Johnson said, "with the choice of either keeping our stock off this land or losing our soil resources for decades to come. The direct impact will be felt in the Great Southwest, but the beneficial effects will be shared by the whole nation and by generations ahead."

Bud Johnson Installed VFW Head

C. W. "Bud" Johnson, World War II Navy combat veteran of the Pacific, was installed post commander of Medina Post No. 3891 Veterans of Foreign Wars, at a special meeting called for that purpose Saturday night. This is Johnson's second term as post commander.

Other officers installed included Louis George, senior vice-commander; Harry Haltman, commander; Os car Rohrbach, quartermaster; Clarence Haass, post chaplain; Harry Freeman, post advocate; Harry Mueller Jr., surgeon and George Rutherford, trustee.

Marvin Franger, district commander of the 11th district was present as installing officer. Following the installation service, a barbecue dinner was served to about 45 members and guests. Howard Haby and Harry Freeman, were in charge of the dinner.

During the meeting, plans were made regarding the annual VFW "Buddy Poppy" sale the group sponsors each year in May.

Castro Girls Take Tour Of Drug Store

The Nowetopotimmin campfire girls of Castroville held their meeting in the elementary school Tuesday, April 9.

The group visited the drug store and were shown how prescriptions for medicine are filled. They were also shown how different soft drinks are made and how bows are made for decorating gift packages. Bettie Burgess served refreshments. Kathleen Kauffmann will serve at the next meeting.

CONCERT — The St. Louis Choral Group, above, presented a recital before a large audience in the Parish Hall last Sunday. The program consisted of three parts with guest performers of Susan Lawson, Sheila Afflerbach and Gerald Ingraham. The group has appeared on civic programs and has earned wide acclaim. They participated in the song festival held in San Antonio Wednesday, April 3.

By Fly

Well, mah friend, it's over — for another year, anyway. Seems like that Eternal Revenue comes around a little sooner each year. Which reminds me of a song I heard the other day:

You take the short form,
And I'll take the long form,
But I'll be in Sing-sing afore you —

Seriously, I reckon we should all be pretty grateful. Understand there are some countries where they aren't allowed to just pay taxes.

But on a cheerfuller note, how about all this rain! Harry Schweers says he's had nearly a half inch out his way! Guess the only people complainin' are the mamas. My wife says she feels like the mama kangaroo who said, "I just hate weather like this, when the kids have to play inside!"

One last note: drop by the Drugstore and see our new gift-wrap. Really got some fancy bows and we'll make any size or color you want. Come on in and have a look-see. We think they are real purty.

See you next week?
adv.

Bill

are urged to see your doctor at least once a year for a thorough checkup — even when you feel fine. Your doctor can detect cancer in its "silent" stage — when chances of cure are highest.

What can be done?

Plenty! Thousands of cancer victims could be saved each year. Today, one third of those with cancer are being saved. But — one half could be saved through earlier diagnosis and better treatment.

How

By the approved methods of radiation and surgery. No paste, pill, potion or lotion can cure cancer. And, we ask that you beware of "wonder" cures. They can be deadlier than the disease.

BE ALERT to the Seven Danger Signals:

- 1 Unusual bleeding or discharge
- 2 A lump or thickening, in the breast or elsewhere
- 3 A sore that does not heal
- 4 Any persistent change in normal bowel habits
- 5 Persistent hoarseness or cough
- 6 Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing
- 7 Change in a wart or mole

If any of these symptoms appear, it may or may not mean cancer, but don't take any chances.

AUSTIN, Tex. — "Sine die" is the magic phrase around the Capitol nowadays. It's the phrase traditionally applied to the final adjournment time agreed on by both houses of the Legislature.

Only three weeks remain of the 120 days recommended in the Constitution for sessions. After that (May 7) lawmakers' pay stops.

Sentiment appears strong for a sine die resolution set on or very near that deadline. It's been a rough session, say many members. Investigations, bribery charges, counter-charges and threat of more have frayed nerves, provoked hot words, deep rifts.

They've made it harder to plough through the usual hundreds of measures requiring study, debate and some sort of agreement. Many are still backed up in discouraging stacks.

Even so, say members, they hope to shove through the "musts" and go home on time. But likely differences of opinion on what constitutes "musts" promise even more tension and temper for the final weeks.

Teacher Raise

One of the biggest issues still gathering steam in the Legislature is the teacher pay raise. Despite strong backing, the drive has been beset with stumbling blocks.

Public school teachers want a $399-a-year boost. Total cost for the biennium is variously estimated from $45,000,000 to $70,000,000. Sponsors have become increasingly impatient of delays. Bill was stymied by House rule which prohibits consideration of any other spending bill until the general appropriations bill is finally approved. This is in conference committee.

Then the attorney general ruled the teachers' bill was not an appropriation bill. This seemingly opened the door to quicker action. But budget-watchers intervened. They said passage of the teacher bill first would leave the treasury $20,000,000 short of enough to cover the general appropriation bill.

This focused attention on Rep. Tom Joseph's "just in case it's needed" tax bill. It would tax dedicated natural gas reserves, produce an estimated $35,000,000 in two years. Gov. Price Daniel had recommended a levy of this sort should more revenue be needed.

But this one, by some slip, was introduced without an enabling clause. Joseph sought the necessary two-thirds House vote to permit a correction. Vote was 68-to-66 against.

ETHICS BILL ZIPS OUT

After weeks of haggling in the House, the code of ethics bill whizzed through the Senate in one day.

It goes to the governor's desk with 29-0 Senate approval. Bill provides that no legislator, state official or employee shall engage in any outside activity "in substantial conflict with the public interest." Penalty is expulsion or dismissal.

NARCOTICS BILL PASSED

A possible death penalty for dope peddlers seems almost certain to become law.

House and senate have passed the bill which was recommended by Gov. Price Daniel. It would permit juries to assess the death penalty on second conviction for sale of any narcotic drug to a minor.

Livestock Parasites Are Making Attack

Livestock parasites are now making a "two-gun" attack on farmers' profits, the American Foundation for Animal Health warned today.

"Not only do these pests cause a loss by making stock unthrifty, they also lower the resistance of livestock, making them more easy prey to infectious diseases," Foundation officials pointed out.

Parasites may cause damage to the animals' skin, also to intestinal walls and mucous membranes, leaving the way open for infections to enter. Loss of blood and failure to use feed efficiently also leaves the victims with less strength to fight off germs and viruses.

Authorities listed several diseases which may develop following parasite infestations. Pneumonia can easily follow damage done by lung worms in sheep. The parasites block portions of the lung, thus causing pneumonia. Black disease may also be caused in sheep when immature flukes penetrate the liver. Peritonitis in pigs is commonly caused by thornhead worms penetrating intestinal walls. Practically all parasitized animals suffer from anemia, and there are numerous other problems for which parasites can help pave the way.

"Farmers should adopt a con-

The building, when completed, will house three nursery classes, three kindergarten classes, Primary, Junior, Intermediate and Senior Departments, two adult classes, including a Prayer Chapel, Kitchen and Fellowship Hall.

Space is also provided for an increase in departments which will soon be needed. The new building is designed to take care of a church school enrollment of 360. Present church membership is 577 and church school attendance has shown an increase of 95 per cent in the past six years.

A concerted financial drive is being conducted by specially set up committees under the direction of the commission on finance.

The opportunity is also being provided for memorial gifts from individuals and families. Estimated cost of the building is approximately $120,000. The goal is to raise as much of this as possible in cash and to finance the remainder to be paid out over a period of years.

Mrs. Richard Brieden Named President of Club

Officers for the Castro Garden Club elected Tuesday afternoon, April 9, were president, Mrs. Richard Brieden; vice-president, Mrs. Paul Christilles Sr.; recording secretary, Mrs. Harold Meyer; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Johnny Reus; and treasurer, Mrs. Joe Hoog.

Two members of the Club received awards at the recent Flower Show held in San Antonio at the Witte Museum. Mrs. Fred Childs won a red ribbon for an arrangement of pink poppies in small charcoal vases for a master bedroom, and a third place for an arrangement of pink "glads" for a foyer; Mrs. Dan Canty won fourth place for an arrangement for a chest of drawers. The Club also donated 118 potted and labelled plants to the Flower Show. The out-going president, Mrs. Ethlyn N. Conrad, announced that the Club will donate $150 to the fund for the beautification of Houston Square. This fund, it is hoped, will be added to by donations from other organizations and anyone who is interested in the project. Donations have been received from Mr. and Mrs. Louis Hart of Castroville, and Mr. and Mrs. Ted James of San Antonio.

During the administration of Mrs. Conrad, the Club continued its care of September Square, sponsored a tour of Castroville for the wives of members of the Border Bar Association, and the Club's third spring tour. It purchased and presented markers to 13 owners of pioneer homes in Castroville who have made the tours of Castroville possible. The Club hopes to add to the list as other owners qualify for the honor. The Club joined the San Antonio Garden Center this year and will continue to work with the Center next year.

The second printing of "The Story of Castroville", which the Club sponsored, has made available again copies of the booklet on the history and architecture of the town. Proceeds from the sale of the booklet will be used to help take care of the general expenses of the Club.

Garden Club Plants Two Parkways

The Hondo Garden Club has planted two more parkways along Highway 90, bringing to seven the total now beautified in the city limits. This announcement was made by Mrs. Fabian Garrison at the Hondo Garden Club meeting held in the Medina Electric Co-Op building April 5.

One block has been planted west of the other parkways and another one, which is much longer, has been landscaped at the east end. The one there holds the Chamber of Commerce sign, and it has recently been repainted to harmonize with a color scheme recommended by the garden club.

Mrs. R. W. Landers, president of the club, announced that the Hondo Future Farmers of America were planning to install a permanent type sign welcoming travelers to Hondo near the oak tree in this long parkway.

The city had installed water pipes to these areas previously and the highway department had also filled in with rich dirt and planted grass seed, so the newly planted areas should be making a pretty showing in a short time.

The Garden Club finances these highway beautifications and maintenance projects by means of its Thrift Shop on 15th Street. Donations of saleable articles are always welcomed by the club, whether they be household articles or clothing. This is their only means of making money, so its support is important not only to the club but to everyone who drives down highway 90.

Guest Arranger
Mrs. Dwight Weir of San Antonio was guest speaker and arranger at the April 5 meeting. Introduced by Mrs. Riggs Shepperd, program chairman, Mrs. Weir constructed four arrangements for the membership and friends of the club.

Mrs. Koch Plays Host To HD Club

Mrs. Randolph Koch was hostess to the LaCoste Home Demonstration Club Tuesday, April 9, with eight members present. The meeting was opened with an Easter Creed, followed with the business meeting.

After the main topics were discussed, members voted on a donation to the LaCoste Lions Fire Department.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be April 30 in the home of Mrs. C. A. Stein.

Natalia Group Sends Protest Letter To Premier Bulganin

Charging that Soviet officials "may perhaps be found fighting actually against God," a strongly worded letter of protest from officials of the Watch Tower Bible and Tract Society, legal governing body of Jehovah's Witnesses, has been sent to Premier Nikolai A. Bulganin of the U.S.S.R.

Robert Brazell, presiding minister of the Natalia congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses, in announcing the contents of the letter, cited the wholesale arrests and mass movements of Jehovah's Witnesses to slave labor camps in Siberia.

"For many years now," Brazell quoted the letter as saying, "Jehovah's Witnesses within the Soviet Union have endured great difficulties and heavy persecution. They have constituted committees and delegations from among their own ministers for the purpose of registering their religious organization according to the statutes in force, but on each occasion they have been rebuffed and instead of being allowed to register their Christian organization they have had ministers in the delegations arrested."

The letter was written to accompany a composite petition that had been adopted over a period of nine months by a total of 462,936 of Jehovah's Witnesses, meeting in 199 assemblies throughout the world. It called attention to the 7,000 Jehovah's Witnesses known to be in slave camps in the Soviet Union and, requesting their release, proposed that a delegation be permitted to proceed from the Society's headquarters in Brooklyn, N.Y., to Moscow to fully acquaint the Soviet government with the true aims and purposes of Jehovah's Witnesses.

Asserting their purpose was to inform the world of the bitter Christian persecution that still rages behind the Iron Curtain, Brazell revealed, "A full report is being published in the April 15 issue of the Watchtower, official magazine of Jehovah's Witnesses. This issue will have a stepped-up world circulation of 10,000,000 copies in 45 languages, which is three times normal circulation. Plans are being made by the Natalia congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses to call at every house in Medina County with this report."

The Easter Story

Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came unto the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.

And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabouts, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.

And as they were afraid and bowed down their faces, they said unto them "Why seek ye the living among the dead."

He is not here, but is risen.

Luke Chapter 24:1-6.

He is Risen

And when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalen and Mary the mother of James might come and anoint Him.

And very early in the morning, the first and Salome had bought sweet spices that they day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

And they said among themselves, "Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre.

And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away, for it was very great.

And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment. And they were affrighted.

And he saith unto them, "Be not affrighted. Ye seek Jesus of Nazareth which was crucified. He is risen. He is not here."

Two Teams Tie For Highway 90 First

Castroville, LaCoste and D'Hanis came out on top of the pile last weekend as they scored victories over Uvalde, Hondo and Rio Medina. Weekend weather was more suitable for football, with temperatures ranging in the 50's.

After two weeks of play, Castroville and D'Hanis are tied for first place, with two wins and no losses. After this Sunday's games, Highway 90 will have one first place team as Castroville travels to D'Hanis in what will probably be one of the best games in the League so far this season.

Castroville Over Uvalde Castroville turned in a 7-4 victory over the Uvalde Red Sox in the city park at Uvalde Sunday. J. Henderson, Uvalde pitcher, went the entire route for the Red Sox, giving up nine hits, seven runs and five bases on balls. Earl Tschirhart gave up 12 hits, four runs and four bases on balls in going the entire nine innings for the Indians.

Each team scored three earned runs in the cold and wet Uvalde environment. Tschirhart had excellent control with Uvalde runners on base. The Red Sox left 12 men stranded between first and home plate.

Leading the Indians to victory was S. Haby, who had two hits at four times at bat, and B. Tschirhart, who had three hits in five times in the box. M. Wiebush, R. Young, B. Culp, J. Harrell and H. Langford led Uvalde hitting with two hits each. Six errors on the part of the Red Sox cost them plenty as Castroville committed only two miscues.

The first inning of play went scoreless for both teams. But, during the top of the second, the Indians blasted away for two runs and took the lead after a scoreless third inning, 2-0. Castroville added another two runs in the top of the fourth but Uvalde wood tied it up 4-4 in the bottom of the fourth.

The Indians returned to the plate in the top of the fifth to add two more runs to again take the lead 6-4. Three scoreless innings and the Indians added another run to their credit. Uvalde failed to score in the bottom of the ninth and the Indians returned home with their second victory of the young season.

Billy Tschirhart, Lynn Tschirhart and M. Kempf all came through with doubles to drive in runs for the Indians. Kempf's double in the second inning opened the gates by driving in two runs.

LaCoste Dumps Braves The LaCoste Athletics ground out a 9-8 victory over the Hondo Braves in LaCoste, making their season record stand at one win and one loss. Hondo has a 0-2 record for the season, after losing to Rio Medina in the open-

Comets Win Over Peacock

After a stumbling start in their first league game, the St. Louis Comets broke loose with a heavy-hitting attack on the Peacock Kadets as they smothered the San Antonio team 21 to 2 last week. The win was the fourth of the season for Francis Lutz as he limited the Kadets to four hits.

The Comets scored their first time up and then really opened up in the third. Steve Haby started the trouble with a triple and scored on Mangold's fly. Justin Jungman then tripled, and Lutz followed with a double while Dennis Haby got the third triple of the inning. After another sacrifice fly, Holzhaus connected with the fourth Comet triple in the same inning, and the Comets led 6 to 1.

Steve Haby, who got off to a slow start in pre-season games, finally came alive as he opened the fourth inning with a home run. In the fifth, St. Louis turned the game into a riot as they scored eight runs. The boys on the bench took over, and they also continued to score. Altogether, the Comets managed for 15 hits. Besides Steve Haby, who got three for four, Royce Groff, Francis Lutz, Dennis Haby, Gerry Holzhaus and Bobby

D'Hanis Track Team Takes Many Points

By Mrs. Amos Finger D'HANIS, (Sp) — The District meet at LaCoste April 5, saw a strong D'Hanis team rack up many points toward the all-around District championship. D'Hanis was very strong in literary events and scored one first and three seconds in the tennis events which were held at the same time.

Skipper Stewart, D'Hanis tennis player, won his first match easily, but lost to a very steady Frances Meyer of LaCoste in the finals. Ellen Langfeld blasted her way to the title with an easy straight-set victory in the finals to win D'Hanis its only first place in tennis. Dorene Nehr and Isabel Duncan also lost in the finals as did Carolyn Carle and Nancy Nester. It may be mentioned that these girls played well for as little time as they have spent in learning the game. Most of them had never played until this year.

D'Hanis students rated as follows in literary competition: Arithmetic: High School, first, Elementary school, first, Jimmy Joe Langfeld; Ramon Rodriguez; Nester, Carolyn Carle. Debate: Third, Ann Langfeld, Nemesio Ortiz, Olin Gilliam. Declaration: High School senior girls, first, Dorene Nehr; High School junior girls, first, Joan Carle, and second, Judy Zerr; Elementary girls, second, Ellen Langfeld, and third, Nancy Nester; Elementary boys, first,
